AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GROVER'S THEATER.—Miss Charlotte Thompson appears to-night in "Fanchon," a play with which our theater goers are familiar, and one which has ever proved an attraction wherever performed. Miss Thompson, it is said, equals, if she does not surpass all actresses who have attempted this character. Whether this is so or not, our eitizens now have an opportunity of judging.

FORD'S THEATER .- Mr. J. S. Clarke Willap. pear to-night in two of his most amusing characters, viz: as "Tom Tittler," in the "Knights of the Round Table," and as "Paul Patent," in "Love in Livery." Two more mirth-provoking pieces could not be produced, and the announcement of their presentation cannot fail to induce the attendance of a large audience. CANTERBURY .- A bill replete with fun is announced for this evening's entertainment at this popular hall. "Cudjo's Cave," will be performed again. Marietta Ravel will appear in dance and upon the tight rope, and the Ethiopian corps will certainly be on hand with their excellent budget.

THE GREAT SHOW .- Dan Rice's great show is in successful operation under a canopy at the corner of 6th street and New York avenue. All of the performers are loudly applauded, and a visit will be well repaid to those who are fond of fun. The more the public see of the trained horses, ponies, mules, buffalo, dogs, and monkeys, the better they appear to appreciate this wonderful development of instinct, and the wit of the great jester becomes daily more pungent. The spectators seem to feel that the appearance of Mrs. Dan Rice contributes an air of refinement to the whole affair.

SACRED CONCERT .- At Dr Smith's Church, on 9th street, a grand sacred concert will be given to-night, when Rossini's "Stabat Mater" will be performed. The best musical talent of the city has been engaged for the occasion, and the whole affair will be under the direction of Mrs. C. Y. Kretschmar.

THE PRACE DEMOCRACY AT WAR-They Make Delegates for the Chicago Convention, and have a Lively Time About It .- An adjourned meeting of the National Democratic Association was held last night at Parker's Hall, and was called to order by the President, Chas. Mason, Esq. Among those proposed and elected to mem-bership were Messrs. C. M. Zulick, John Davis, John H. Wise, J. R. Cassell, R. B. Owens, Jer. Costello, B. P. Page and Jas. S. Holland. Mr. J. D. Hoover, the treasurer, stated that among other contributions he had received a check for $100 from Hon. Amos Kendall. While he was up he would state that he thought the finance committee had been very derelict in

Hon. Amos Kendall being present, was in-vited to occupy a seat upon the platform. After some unimportant discussion relative to the committees, which was participated in by Ex-Mayor Berrett, J. D. Clark, Esq., B. Curran, and others, the Chair stated that the business for which the meeting had been specially called was to elect delegates to the Chicago Convention.

duty, for if they had properly exerted them-selves a large sum might have been realized for the cause, in which all had an interest.

Mr. J. D. Clark thought the election of delegates at this time would be premature, and he hoped the whole matter would be postponed until a subsequent meeting. [Cries of "No, no! Yes, let's do it! Let's elect; put her through now," and similar cries all over the hall were heard from both sides.]

Dr. J. H. Merrill arose and said he believed the proposition to elect delegates now was premature. [Applause.] The Democracy of this District had a higher object in view than to waste time in the election of delegates who would never be admitted to the convention. Besides the Democracy of the District was not fully represented here to-night It would be better to call ward meetings, and take the sense of the wards upon this matter, and let them send delegates to a nominating convention. The Democracy here was once strong, but it is not strong now, and why is it not ! The Chair.—It is strong, sir.

Mr. F. Birkhead, (to Dr. Merrill.)—It is not strong on account of such men as you. [Applause.] Dr. Merrill continued, and said it made no difference what individuals thought of him, he would do his duty toward the party. Mr. Michael Duffy said he desired to raise the point of order, whether Mr. Merrill was a member of the association or not. The Chair stated he was a member.

Mr. Clark raised the point that Dr. Merrill was making a regular speech instead of speaking to the resolution. Dr. Merrill said he was not used to public speaking, and was not well drilled in the

Mr. Duffey .- We don't want to hear any Dr. Merrill replied that he was not to be put down. A voice.—What's your name? [Laughter.

Mr. Flynn raised the point that a rule provided that no speeches or addresses should be made except by invitation of the association. Dr. Merrill took his seat. Mr. Jas. F. Haliday offered a resolution directing that the democrats throughout the District assemble in ward meetings and elect five delegates each, to assemble in this hall on Tuesday night, to select delegates to the Chicago Col. Florence expressed his surprise that the discussion had sprung up. The subject had been fully considered, and the association had gone so far as to fix to-night as the time for selecting delegates. The gentleman (Dr. Merrill) had been talking wildly and at random, and asserted that the action was premature. Dr. Merrill essayed to get the floor, when there were cries of "Sit down," "You've said

Col. Florence continued. The gentleman had talked at random in a long speech, and he (Col. F.) was not to be interrupted. [Applause.] And he argued that the matter was well understood, and urged that the gentleman would act consistently. "Consistency is a jewel;" one especially desirable for the association to have in its infancy. Col. Florence moved to take the sense of the meeting, that Hon. Amos Kendall be requested to represent the association at Chicago. Mr. Clark withdrew his motion to postpone the selection of delegates.

Mr. Haliday's resolution was voted down. Mr. W. H. Towers offered a resolution that the association endorse the nominee of the convention whoever he may be. [Cries of "No, no, "Don't go it blind."]

The resolution was voted down. Mr. Florence advocated the appointment of Hon. Amos Kendall as a delegate to Chicago. What man more proper for the office than he who had battled by the side of Andrew Jack-sen in the cause of Democracy? [Applause.] He was very willing that each ward should elect delegates; but he thought Mr. Kendall was a fit person to represent the Democracy of the District in that convention. [Applause.] Mr. Florence was here nominated as one of the delegates, but peremptorily declined. Mr. John F. Ennis obtained the floor and said he was opposed to this matter in toto. His opinion was, and ever had been, that, as we had no will in the election of a President, we should stand aloof from these conventions. He was opposed to sending gentlemen to the Chicage Convention to stand as paupers at the door and knock and plead for admission. Let us help to elect the candidate after he is nominated, but not try to nominate that candidate when we had no voice in the election. [Applause.] He thought the Convention at Chicago would be postponed, and he would therefore move the postponement of this election of delegates until a subsequent time. Mr. M. Duffy desired to know why the gentleman did not make his objection before. Some one wanted to know whether Mr. Duffy had been invited to speak. [Laughter and ap-

Mr. Ennis said he had objected when this matter was first broached, but his words were not heeded. He had opposed the election of delegates to National Conventions when he was a member of the Democratic Jackson Association and he opposed it yet, because he did no: believe it was productive of any good. [Applause] These things tended to divide the party and to create a bitterness of feeling which should be avoided at this time.

Mr. Kendall having been elected a delegate, he stated that he could not at this time express his thanks but would avail himself of a subsequent occasion to do so. The motion to have ward elections, was, amid much confusion laid on the table. A motion was then made to support the nomimee of the Chicago Convention whoever he might be, and this was tabled.

Mr. Chas. Mason was then elected a delegate to Chicago. Mr. Ennis moved that the election now close.

Two members were as many as had ever been admitted at any National Convention, and it was a perfect farce to elect a greater number. Mr. Florence said Mr. Ennis was too late, as the number had been fixed at fifteen long It was then decided to proceed with the election of delegates, and the following were elected: T. B. Schwartz, Wm. Flynn, James A. Wise, Charles A. Allen, Burke B. Williams, John F. Ennis, B. C. Lawrence, D. J. Snow, Lewis Schade, John E. Reeside, M. Thompson and John Purdy. Mr. Florence here nominated Mr. Michael Duffy. The German element, he said, had been represented and now he would nominate this patriotic Irishman.

The nomination of Mr. Duffy was voted down; and, on motion, the question was again taken upon his nomination, when Mr. J. F. Haliday desired to know if Mr. Duffy had not in the last two elections voted for the abolition candidate for Mayor. [Applause.]

Mr. Duffy said he had voted for the best man.

He said he had always been a Democrat, and had voted as he pleased. [Applause.]

Mr. D. Rutherford called Mr. Duffy to order, and said he (D.) was not a Democrat, and ought not to have a say in this matter. [Ap-

Mr. Duffy said he would not be called to order by an old Whig. [Sensation.]
The excitement here grew high. Half a dozen individuals were speaking at once, and it was utterly impossible to report their re-

The Chair finally succeeded in restoring order, and Mr. C. M. Zulick was finally elected as the fifteenth delegate; and the meeting then adjourned.

THE DISTRICT IN CONGRESS .- The amendments proposed by the Senate committee to the House bill amending the charter of the "Wash. ington and Georgetown Railroad Company,' instead of requiring that they "shall" on Sanday run their cars, during the session of Congress, as on other days of the week, between the east front of the Capitol and 17th street. simply gives them "permission" to do so. The section requiring the company to keep in good repair and clean condition the flag-stones at the crossings of the streets leading to their tracks, adjusting them to the pavement, &c., is struck out, as is also that changing the route of the road around the east front of the Capitol The section requiring the company to prepare and sell tickets in packages of 25 each for $1 is also struck out—so that all passengers will still pay five instead of getting a ride for four

The bill incorporating the Baltimore and Washington Depot and Potomac Ferry Railway Company, names as corporators Columbus Alexander, Robert A. Hooe, George A. Bates, Lucien Payton, and Sela Squires, and gives them power to lay down a double or single track railway from the Baltimore depot, on New Jersey avenue, thence through C street to Sixth street, to Missouriavenue; thence along said avenue to Four-and-a-half street. to N street, and thence along N street to the Potomac river, or Sixth street wharf, with the privilege also of continuing said road along Four-and-a-half to P street, and thence to the Potomac river, with the right to construct a wharf into said river, the width of P street, the outer or channel line to be subject to the approval of the Superintendent of the Coast Survey, so as not to interfere with navigation. and the wharf and roads are to be subject to municipal regulations. The fare is not to exceed five cents, and for freight ten cents is allowed per 100 pounds, and packages of a less weight the same. The capital is not to be less than one hundred thousand dollars, nor more than two hundred thousand dollars. One section requires the company to sell tickets in packages of twenty-five for one dollar. The incorporators in another bill to charter the Potomac Ferry Company, are H. D. Cooke, John B. Hutchinson, H. C. Fahnestock, Thomas Clyde and William B. Hatch, with a capital stock of not less than $100,000 nor more than $500,000.

TRUSTEES OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS .- At the reglar monthly meeting of the Trustees of the Public Schools last night the application of Mr. S. A. Wallace for a teachership was read and referred.

A communication was presented from the Naval Lodge of Masons that hereafter they would be compelled to charge $150 for the use of a room for school purposes.

The secretary presented full reports of all the school districts for the past month. Mr. Wilson presented the petitions of Miss Whitman and Miss Edgecombe for teacherships. Referred. Mr. Wight, from the committee on vocal music, reported that a number of concerts had been held under the direction of Prof. Daniel. and that the gross amount of $981 had been realized, leaving a nett amount of $818.95 for the purchase of pianos, which amount exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the committee. This amount had been turned over to Mr. John F. Ellis to pay for pianos purchased for the schools. The committee considered this a most successful effort.

Mr. Wight also reported, from the committee on accounts and expenditures, that they had examined the bills of Wilson & Co. for wood and coal furnished the schools of the First District, and they would authorize the bills to be paid, after deducting one third of the amount charged for the wood, and making a proper deduction in the bill for coal. This deduction was satisfactory to the Messrs. Wilson. The report was accepted, and the bills were ordered

Mr. Wilson presented a bill of $100 from Z. Richards, for services while in charge of the Teachers' Institute; and it was ordered to be paid.

Mr. Ferguson presented a bill of Williams & Jolly for $323.03, for coal furnished the schools of the Third District; ordered to be paid. Mr. Rhees presented bill of McGill & Witherow, for printing blanks, &c.: which was also ordered to be paid.

Mr. Wight introduced a resolution relative to the distribution of premiums at the coming examinations, which requires that the names of pupils deserving of rewards shall be mentioned publicly, the rules of the Board requiring that no pupil shall receive more than one premium. The Board then adjourned until the 25th instant.

FUNERAL OF MR. GORDON.—The funeral of the late Jas. A. Gordon took place from his residence, on M street south, yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended, a numerous body of friends and relatives following the remains to the Congressional Cemetery, where they were interred.

The procession was composed of the Navy Yard Beneficial Society (now nearly 50 years old,) American Hook and Ladder Company, Anacostia Fire Company, (of which the de ceased was for many years president, and at the time of his death the treasurer,) with the Marine Band; Eastern Lodge, No. 7, and Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. (with music,) and members of the city government. A large number of the fellow workmen of the deceased were also in line—the blacksmiths' department, Navy Yard, of which the deceased was quarterman, being closed yesterday afternoon that they might at-

The corpse was placed in a handsome coffin, on the breast of which was the regalia of the Odd Fellows and a number of beautiful wreaths.

The services were conducted by Rev. H. N. Sipes, of the East Washington Methodist Church, and Parker H. Sweet, Grand Chaplain of the Odd Fellows, after which the solemn cortege proceeded to the Cemetery where they were interred, the bell of the Anacostia tolling meanwhile. The engine house was heavily draped in mourning, and the flag of the company was displayed at half-mast.

The following were the pall-bearers: P. G.'s W. Hall and E. Mudd, of the Grand Lodge; Brothers H. Grant and T. Clements, of Eastern Lodge; W. A. Nicholson and Joseph Fredererick, of the Anacostia, and John Smith and John Smallwood, of the Beneficial Society.

LARCENY FROM A VESSEL.-Night before last, the schooner Imagin, lying at the foot of 11th street, was robbed of $111 and a stay sail worth $30, and yesterday morning one of the hands, named Sam Johnson, a colored man, was missing. The police were informed, and officer Pullin coming across the man, arrested him. He had spent most of the money in clothes, which were taken back by those who sold them, and in this manner about $80 were recovered. Justice Boswell committed him to iail for court.

SERENADE.—Mr. C. S Noyes, Alderman electrom the Seventh Ward, was the recipient last night of an agreeable serenade at the hands of his friends of that ward. Withers' pepular band (headed by the handsome William W. in in person) officiated on the occasion, and performed a number of airs in superb style indeed. The party were invited in by Mr. No. deed. The party were invited in by Mr. N., and some time was spent very socially and pleasantly at his table.
